ALL HAIL CONNECTICUT.

What land is that so nicely bound
By Massachusetts and the Sound,
Rhode Island and New York around,
Where Yankees thick as hops are found,
And hasty puddings do abound?
Connecticut.

What land is that, where folks are said
To be so scrupulously bred,
To be so steady habited,
Where hearty boys and girls are fed
With pumpkin pies and gingerbread?
Connecticut.

What land is that where old Time walks
A steady pace o'er maple blocks;
Forsakes his glass for wooden clocks;
Where heads too high meet with hard knocks,
And land were more if fewer rocks?
Connecticut.

What land is that where onions grow,
Where maidens' necks are white as snow,
And cheeks like roses red you know;
Where johnny cakes are baked with dough,
The land where milk and honey flow?
Connecticut.

What land is that whence peddlers come,
A thousand miles or more from "hum,"
With tin, with bass-wood trenchers; some
With patent nutmegs and new rum?
To gather up the coppers? Hum!
Connecticut.

What land is that where parsons live,
Where men hear gospel and believe,
Where humble sinners seek reprieve,
Where women stay at home and weave,
Nor gad without their husband's leave?
Connecticut.

What land is that where I can trace
My nineteenth cousin by his face,
Where once I fished with little dace,
And never learned the deuce from ace;
Where grandmother this day says grace?
Connecticut.

And better still, what land is that,
Where Democrats laugh and grow fat?
Where Radicals like cunning rat
Forsake the swamp'd Disunion "flat"
And "turn" like nimble acrobat?
Connecticut.

EXTRAORDINARY FAMILY LAW-SUIT.

A Story of French Life.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times has the following account of a curious case in a French law court:

"A very extraordinary family lawsuit concerning the custody of two young ladies, aged respectively twenty and seventeen, occupied one of the Paris courts last week. The plaintiff, M. Baison, a gentleman of property, living in the Rue St. Honore, is the father of the minors in question by a first wife, who died many years ago. M. Baisson has several children by a second marriage. Immediately after the death of his first wife he placed his two children, then infants of tender years, under the care of his mother-in-law, the defendant, a widow. This lady became passionately attached to the girls, took the utmost care of their education, treated them in all respects as her adopted children, relieved the father of all expenses for their maintenance, and made no secret of her intention to leave them the whole of her very large fortune. Under these apparently most happy circumstances, the utmost harmony prevailed between M. Baisson and the mother of his first wife; he was able to devote himself to his new family with the knowledge that his elder children were in the hands of a tender, judicious and wealthy relation whose greatest object in life was their welfare.

"But a few months ago it happened that the eldest Mlle. Baisson fell in love—a most improper thing for any young lady to do according to French notions. The rule of good French society is that a girl until married is never to speak to any man unless in the presence of her parents or guardians, and then only in monosyllables. A well bred French girl knows that she has one day to be married, and looks forward to the event with pleasure, as one which will give her an opportunity of making many old school fellows jealous by the display of her trousseau. But she is supposed to have no preference on the subject. One day her father comes to her and says, 'My love, I have found you a husband.' To which she replies, kissing her father on the forehead, 'Merci, mon pere?' 'Who is it?' He gives the name, mentions a proximate day for the wedding and then the young lady consults with her mother about the wedding outfit. These well known rules were not regarded in the case of Mlle. Baisson's attachment. Yes! she absolutely formed an attachment, and her rich grandmother, who had brought her up and was prepared to do everything requisite, humanely speaking, to make her future life happy, was privy to it.

"The object of her attachment is an army surgeon, a man of merit, both personally and through his foregoers. His father was a distinguished general officer, and he himself wears upon his breast a constellation of medals and decorations attesting his good services. But his only fortune is his commission, and on this sole ground M. Baisson, when informed of the engagement by his mother-in-law, peremptorily declared that the army surgeon was no fit match for his daughter. The father who had been content to delegate to her grandmother the entire care of his daughter from her earliest infancy came forward resolutely to exercise the stern parental authority which the law gives him in order to prevent the marriage of a girl almost of age with the man of her choice, and who had courted her with the approbation of the relation who stood in loco parentis, and had been throughout life her best friend.

M. Baisson went to his mother-in-law's house, saw his daughter, told her that he would never give his consent to the marriage, and moreover, that he would no longer allow her to live with her grandmother, and that she must come away with him directly. The young lady, in obedience to this parental command, packed up her trunks and got into her father's carriage, which was in waiting. But the carriage had only gone a few yards when she suddenly opened the door, at the risk of breaking her neck, jumped out into the street, and ran back to her grandmother's. M. Baisson thought it undesirable to make a scene by attempting then and there to bring his daughter away by force. He contented himself by saying that he was inflexible, and she would hear from him in a few days. When next he went to the house he was informed that the whole family had gone away, and had left no address.

"M. Baisson went over almost all Europe in search of his daughters. He inquired at all the German watering-places, and at every town in Belgium, but without any result. At length he hit upon the expedient of sending a money letter to the grandmother at her old address at Paris, and learned, through the post office, that this letter was delivered to the very army surgeon whose pretensions to his eldest daughter's hand formed the casus belli. He afterwards found that the two girls were concealed under false names in a Catholic convent at Glasgow. Thereupon he brought action against the mother-in-law, requiring her to bring the girls back to France and hand them over to his custody. The Tribunal of First Instance made a decree in his favor, and ordered the young ladies' grandmother to pay one thousand francs a day for two months unless the girls were restored to their father. She, thinking that the penalty of this decree would be the worst of the matter, let the two months expire, and actually paid the large sum of sixty thousand francs into the court—a sum that she was prepared to sacrifice rather than surrender the girls to their obdurate father. But then he brought a further action, laying the damages at a million of francs.

"M. Desmarest, the lady's counsel, told her that the law was altogether on the father's side, and that if she did not give the children up he might go on bringing actions until he utterly ruined her. Acting upon M. Desmarest's advice, the grandmother has now brought the young ladies back from Glasgow. The father has gained his point; they are now in his custody. The only question ultimately before the court was, what damages she should pay to the father for interfering with his authority. The sum, after his counsel, M. Jules Favre, had been heard, was fixed at five thousand francs, and the balance of the sixty thousand francs interest is to be refunded to the lady. As matters now stand Mlle. Baisson cannot marry in France till twenty-five, without her father's consent, but in a few months she will be twenty-one, and then he will have no legal right to prevent her from living where she pleases."

A TEXAS paper tells of a young couple who eloped on horseback, accompanied by a clergyman who was to marry them. The lady's father gave chase, and was overtaking the party when the maiden called out to her clerical friend, "Can't you marry us as we run?" The idea took, and he commenced the ritual, and just as the bride's father clutched her bridle rein the clergyman pronounced the lovers man and wife. The father was so pleased with the dashing action that, as the story goes, he gave them his blessing.

TO FLORISTS AND PLANTERS.—Those who intend making flower beds, or garden, will find it a great advantage to spade their grounds deeply at this time, and spade and mellow them again when the time comes to plant seed or put out shrubbery and flowers. In putting out rose-bushes, procure fine, rich chip manure, or procure rich earth from the forest, to put in the cavities where you propose to place them. See that there is plenty of room to spread out all the roots and fibers, so that they will grow readily and vigorously.

From the Free Christian Commonwealth.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE FORETOLD.

"Their line is gone out through all the earth."
PSALM XIX: 4.

As this wonderful thread now belts more than half the world, we prefer this, to the exegesis of referring the line to a musical string, as ordinarily explained. It was a singular providence that suffered cable after cable to break, until the time, in the great dial of nations, would permit the plans to be completed. It was not until the grandest problem ever solved by any one of the nations on earth had been finished forever. Had that mysterious line been completed a few years sooner, would not the intensely zealous autocrats of the Old World, learning the extent of our reverses in the late struggle, have decided to strike a blow and settle the question? Would not the Southern Confederacy, that fearful product of guilt and daring, been recognized at once, and the hopes of our race been turned back for centuries on the dial plate of human hope.

But the struggle ended, the last fetter having dropped from a redeemed nation of bondmen, the work of binding the nations of earth went on. The first flashings across the ocean were the kind wishes and mutual fervent prayers for continued peace. The patriot rejoiced with grateful reverence, and the Christian with adoring love to God; that the cable was to bind more and more closely the interests of mother and daughter—and all that is hopeful in the universal sanctified brotherhood of man. W. H. V. D.

The foregoing quotation from the Philadelphia Presbyterian is a painful evidence of the degeneracy of the times. How any ordinary Bible reader could so pervert that beautiful psalm, as to make its sublime utterances terminate in a telegraph line is difficult to understand. Darkness certainly covers the earth and gross darkness the people. This original commentator infers that because the line has gone through more than half the world it certainly was indicated by the Psalmist. He seems to forget that there are other things more widely extended than Morse's poles and wires—he certainly forgot Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Jacob Townsend's patent medicines, wooden clocks, and a great many other Yankee notions. These all have had a wider extension than the telegraph—"this grandest problem ever solved." The time too when this great event was accomplished affords the writer particular comfort. I wonder if this same W. H. V. D. is not one of the individuals who pained the hearts of God's people some years ago, on the premature announcement of its success, by applying the same language to the Atlantic Cable, that was used when the glorious Redeemer was first announced to our world, "Glory to God in the Highest." How the application of this language which is associated with the most wonderful record God has given of Himself, could be made to a mere human operation, and yet escape the censure of the press is almost as great a mystery as the telegraph itself. According to the reasoning of this wise commentator the propitious hour had not then arrived—there was a wise providence in the failure which soon became evident. If the lines had proved a success at that time and had continued to the time of that "fearful product of guilt" the "Old World" would have reversed the order of God's providences. As the 'Old World' with her weekly communications was so entirely ignorant of all American transactions the Atlantic Telegraph would have been invaluable. How wonderfully it would have affected England and France, to learn by telegraph that the little bell in Washington had every American citizen at the end of its tongue—and how completely terrified and submissive all Europe would have been lest its tinkle should be heard in the Court of St. James and elsewhere. The writer of the above article is certainly wrong—wrong in his premises, wrong in his conclusions—wrong all through. But the concluding and most overpowering thought of the writer is its power to bind the two nations—"mother and daughter," by this wonderful submarine handcuff. Now whenever it is proved that four thousand miles of prepared wire will bind a certain portion of the "great American nation" to keep a covenant or contract and comply with all its requirements and conditions, all will undoubtedly exclaim, the "grandest problem ever solved by any one of the nations on earth!" S.

Great complaints are coming up from various sections of the Southern States about shrewd and rascally negroes from the North (mulattoes, especially,) who are preying upon the ignorant Southern darkies—swindling them out of every thing they make by their industry. It is said that there are thousands of Northern darkies engaged in that business—two or three thousand from New York city and State alone, and a still larger number from Boston.

TALK WITH A SOLDIER.

"Good morning, Johnny!"

"Good morning!"

"You went to war, I believe?"

"Yes, and I got home again alive, and that is more than some of us did."

"Glad to see yon back——sorry any of you were killed. What did you enlist for?"

"Well, I enlisted to save the Union—Cousin Paul enlisted under a later call to secure the bounty and escape the draft, for he was a poor man. And Cousin Bill, who owned that farm up the Creek, was drafted, had no money to get a substitute, and was obliged to go."

"Well, that was the inconvenience of being poor! Now tell me what you fought for?"

"To restore the Union."

"Did you go into the war to free the negroes?"

"No, sir—went to fight for our flag."

"Could you have conquered without the aid of negro troops?"

"Could we have conquered without the aid of negro troops? Do you mean to ask me if white men of the North are inferior to the black men of the South? Do you mean to insult me—to insult the army?"

"Not a bit of it! I only ask for information, as the Radicals say had it not been for the negro you never would have won your battles."

"Tell the Radical he lies. Perhaps if all the troops had been like him, we might not have won—but all were not like him."

"Which did the most service in the army, the niggers or the mules?"

"A mule is worth a dozen niggers, and is good for something now when the war is over, and a nigger is not. The mule can pay his way, the nigger can't."

"When you heard that the war was over, what did you think?"

"Well, all thought the Union was restored, and we could live in peace."

"How much did you make by going to war?"

"Not much. I had no rich relatives to push me ahead—except in battle! When we went to fight I could always get a front view!"

"What made the soldiers hate the Democrats?"

"We were taught to believe you were disunionists. We could not get a Democratic paper to read, we must read those against you or none, and gradually we began to believe all that Republican papers said about you."

"How do you find us on your return?"

"We find you in favor of the Union, the Republicans opposed to it, and asking us to go into another war to fight an unarmed, submissive foe, that a few rich men may be made richer, and that more contracts may be given to the friends of those who live by war and agitation."

"Did the Republicans keep faith with you while in the army?"

"No! They did not?"

"Please tell me how and where they deceived you?"

"Well sit down on that bench or log, and I will tell you. They asked me to fight to restore the Union. We fought till there was no more army left, and they tell us our fighting amounted to nothing, and the Union is not restored.

"They said Democrats were disunionists, and we find them all in favor of the Union.

"They said if we would go and fight for them, they would take care of our families, and stand the expense of the war, and that the rich ones should and would take care of the poor ones—the brave ones—the patriots."

"But have not the Republicans kept their words?"

"No not even in one respect.

"We went to war; we were poor and had to go. Myself and two cousins. They took care of our families by town tax, taking our property and little farms while we were fighting. And after we had gone to war, they gave bonds of the town and county, bought them for half their face, and now demand full pay and interest, and we soldiers must now work to pay their bonds.

"And when Cousin Bill was drafted, he had to go and leave his farm. And when the tax call came, to escape the draft, they piled the taxes on the farms of us who were fighting, to raise money to exempt those who dare not go, and who were smart enough to keep out at our expense.

"And you see, now the war is over with, we come home to find that our fighting did not restore the Union, and so we had better stayed at home, and voted taxes for somebody else to pay.

"And we find the towns and counties covered with bonds, mortgages, and that, beside doing all the fighting, we are now made to pay more than our share of taxes—we are made to support the niggers we liberated. We are made to work to raise gold to lay in bank for rich men to draw out as interest on their bonds, which are not to be taxed. We are working, in short, to pay ourselves for the luxury of being shot at, while the 'friends of the soldiers' were getting rich at home.

"And we find the same Congressmen who stampeded our army at Bull Run who got rich from the war, voting $100 bounty to white soldiers, $300 bounty to black ones, and then stealing two thousand bollars a year each, and running off with it for us to settle in extra taxation."

"Well, and what conclusion do you come to?"

"I have said this, that I would have been better off to-day had I too stayed at home, voted taxes on some other poor man's property, held office, speculated, got contracts, turned my property into United States Bonds, which bring big interest and pay no taxes, and have left the rampant, loud-mouthed Abolition agitators and stay-at-home guards, who are still for war, done the fighting, then, as they may do next time, for I shall not!"

"Why, my dear friend, you are a bad man. You talk like a Copperhead! You will be called a traitor."

"Can't help it—that's the way I feel; that is the way it worked in my case, and I don't intend to vote for radicalism, aristocracy, and unequal taxation any more. But I must go to work; the bond-holder wants his interest, the negro bureau must be kept up, the Congressmen want their pay, the negro must have his big bounty, while I have a little one; I must buy some stamps, and pay taxes to support the policeman who watches the rich man's bonbs, and I must go to work or before my taxes are paid my poor family will starve. Good day!"

WHAT FASHION DOES.—Fashion rules the world, and a most tyrannical mistress she is—compelling people to submit to the most inconvenient things imaginable, for her sake. She pinches feet with tight shoes, or chokes us with tight neckerchiefs, or squeezes the breath out of our bodies by tight lacing.

She makes people sit up by night, when they ought to be in bed; and keeps them in bed in the morning when they ought to be up and doing.

She causes hosts of apparently sensible persons in other respects to pay ex orbitant prices for the privilege of seeing some foreign operatic or dramatic performers, puffed into notoriety by hired nwspaper writers, and to call the exhibition "splendid," when they don't understand a word that is said, or enjoy the thing as well as an ordinary minstrel show.

She makes it vulgar to wait upon one's self, and genteel to live idle and useless.

She requires people to visit when they had rather stay at home, eat when they are not hungry, and drink when they are not thirsty.

She invades our pleasure and interrupts our business.

She compels people to dress gaily, whether upon their own property or that of another, whether agreeable to the word of God or the dictates of pride.

She ruins health, and produces sickness; destroys life, and occasions premature death.

She makes tools of parents, invalids of children, and servants of all.

She is a despot of the highest grade, full of intrigue and cunning, and yet husbands, wives, fathers, mothers, sons, daughters and servants, black and white, have voluntarily become her obedient subjects and slaves, and vie with one another to see who shall be most obsequious.

GRAFTING.—As the season of grafting fruit trees is at hand, the following advice from the Germantown Telegraph, good authority in such matters, will be of use in the business:—Grafting is a very easy operation when once understood. A sharp penknife and a good fine saw are indispensable. Splitting the stock so that the bark shall not be bruised—and shaping the scion wedge-fashion both ways, preserving also the bark uninjured—and placing the rim of the wood of both stock and scion exactly together, so that the sap can intermingle—there is no danger of failure if properly waxed. We make a shoulder to the graft and think it adds to the certainty of success, though probably it weakens it. We prefer two eyes or buds to a graft, and would rather have one than more than two. One year's wood should always be used when it can be obtained, as it is more certain to take, and grows more vigorously. We remind those about preparing grafting wax, that we have found four parts of rosin, one part of beeswax, and one part of beef tallow, to be the best proportion. Melt them together in a kettle, (which is the best,) or a tin cup, and mix well. It should remain in the vessel and be used as needed. Twenty or thirty scions can be waxed with one heating up. When much grafting is to be done, a little fire for heating the wax, should be made on the spot, between two bricks or stones. We have seen various preparations for making grafting wax, and we believe we have tried them all, but prefer our own. Applying warm or hot does no injury to the graft. The object to attain in the proposition, is, that the wax will not crack in cold dry weather, or run in warm weather. April is the best time to graft.

THE LAUGH OF A WOMAN.—A woman has no natural gift more bewitching than a sweet laugh. It is like the sound of flutes on the water. It leaps from her in a clear sparkling rill; and the heart that hears it feels as if bathed in a cool exhilarating spring. Have you ever pursued an unseen fugitive through trees, led on by a fairy laugh—now here, now there, now lost, now found? We have; and we are pursuing that voice to this day. Some times it will come to us in the midst of care and sorow, or irksome business, and we turn away and listen and hear it ringing through the room like a silver bell, with power to scare away the evil spirits of the mind. How much we owe that sweet laugh! It turns the prose to poetry; it flings flowers of sunshine over the darkness of the wood in which we are traveling; it touches with light even our sleep, which is no more the image of death, but is consumed with dreams that are the shadow of immortality.

The new Poor House, that is so greatly needed.—Bedford Inquirer.

Yes, "the new Poor House that is so greatly needed!" Why didn't your scurvy Radical legislature pass the bill to enable the Poor Directors to build a new Poor House?

AN effort was made to get a bill passed by the late Legislature to enable the Poor Directors to sell the Poor House property and purchase another, or if they concluded not to sell, to erect a new building for the accommodation of the paupers. By some means or other this bill was defeated. This is all wrong, as a new Poor House is badly needed and must be erected soon.

If such blundering has been going on in the management of the county affairs, is it not high time the present incumbents of that department be relieved from their duties, and men competent and willing to conduct the county affairs, placed in their stead.—Inquirer.

Yes, by all means! Let us have the old Know Nothing Board of Poor Directors, Geo. D. Shuck and G. D. Trout, Esqs., re-elected. The "deficits and mistakes" in their time, though heavy, can be overlooked. And, also, let us have J. R. Durborrow for General Tax Collector for the county, He might fork over without being sued.

The Savannah Republican says the "wildest days of St. Domingo" have been reproduced in Southern Georgia, by bad negroes. Murders and other atrocities are of constant occurrence.

Yes, John Brown's soul is marching on! The Gospel of Murder taught by the Abolition Saint when yet in the flesh is being practically fulfilled by his followers. Congress has bound the white people of the South hand and foot, and the "bad negroes" have a nice time of it in the way of hanging women and cutting the throats of infants. Glorious, Christian Reconstruction! Wondrous perfection of civilization! Who can fail to admire the wisdom, the patriotism, the humanity of Congress?

HON. F. M. KIMMELL.

We see that the Patriot and Union and a number of other Democratic papers, suggest the name of JUDGE KIMMELL in connection with the nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court. The Democracy of Bedford county, delight in honoring Judge Kimmell and would hail his nomination with joy. But we understand that the Judge will not permit his name to be used in connection with the nomination. It will be seen that the Democratic meeting on Monday night, requested the delegate from this county to vote for HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, of Philadelphia. We most heartily approve the action of the meeting.

The Savannah Republican reports that the condition of things in Camden and Bryan counties, Georgia, is truly alarming. In one county two negroes sentenced to death for murder and three others to the penitentiary for other offences were rescued from the jail in which they were confined by a mob of negroes and made their escape. In another county men were found hanging to the trees within a short distance of the public roads, and had been hanging there for several days.

Such is the practical effect of the workings of the iniquitous Military Reconstruction Bill passed by the late Congress. What christian man, what lover of law and order, what decent civilized human being, can approve of such a state of affairs? The heart shrinks with horror as we contemplate these scenes of violence and blood. Let it be remembered that upon every man who votes and uses his influence to sustain the late Congress, rests the responsibility for the innocent lives lost under the lawless rule to which the people of the South are at present subjected. Look well to your ballots, ye men of the North! There is blood upon some of them,—innocent blood! Vote to approve the measures of Congress, and you vote to endorse the black cutthroats of Georgia. Vote to sustain Stevens and his followers, and you vote ropes and daggers into the hands of negro outlaws to hang and butcher your fellow men. Think of it, ye thoughtless! Reflect upon the horrible crimes you endorse, and contemplate the hell on earth, which is being made of the blighted South. Stop, for a moment, and think of these things. If you will but think, you will never, never, cast a ballot stained with the blood of murdered women and children and blackened by the infamy of a lawless, Godless and hell-born Military Despotism.

BEECHER ON RADICALISM.

The following objurgation upon the misdeeds of his party, is from the lips of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher:

"The men at Washington and Albany sold their country; they sold their humanity and their honor, and the trusts that were put upon them by their constituents. They were debauchers of the young; they were the traitors; they that lifted the sword were not half so much traitors; they that despoiled the old banner and trod it under foot; they that fired upon the government of the United States were not so much traitors as were those vermin who were crawling under the foundations and destroying by corruption the vital power of the government."

When Mr. Beecher "went back upon" the Conservatives, last fall, the Radicals took great delight in twitting the Democrats as to the defection of the reverend gentleman. What have they to say, now, in regard to his position? What do they think of the testimony of this "great man" touching the treason of their own representatives in Congress? We would especially call the attention of the Bedford Inquirer to this latest political sermon of "the eminent divine." Do you remember, O ye fellows around the corner, how you wanted to know, last fall, whether we had seen Beecher's last letter? Now, we have our revenge upon you. Have you seen Beecher's latest, and if so, will you publish it?

WHERE THE COUNTY DEBT CAME FROM.

Let the Responsibility Rest Where It Be'ongs.

The quidnuncs of the Inquirer are seized with periodical spasms at the thought that the clique to which they belong cannot get into their clutches the management of the finances of this county. Their palms itch most intolerably for the handling of the people's taxes and the very idea of the Democrats controlling the affairs of the county, operates upon them, at times, like an attack of hydrophobia. Then it is that they fume and fret about the "county's indebtedness" and subjects of a kindred nature. As we understand the pathology of their disease pretty thoroughly, we hardly ever fail in trying to check it. Just now they appear to be threatened with a rather violent seizure, but their friends need not be alarmed, as we have a few pills which we will administer in due time, the effect of which will be most charming. Nay, we will take the disease in its incipiency and give them a dose at once. So, here goes, and let us have no wry faces!

Whence came our county debt? That's the question. Let us take the records and trace it to its source. We find that in the years 1854 and 1855 the County Commissioners assessed $1009,29 less State Tax than the quota of the County fixed by the Board of Revenue Commissioners. We find, too, that during those two years, the amount of the State Tax assessed in Bedford County was $14,164,12, and that of this sum only $9,457.41 was paid into the State Treasury during those years, leaving a deficit of $4706,71. Add to the last sum $1009.29, not assessed, and there will be found, at the close of the year 1855, the sum of $5716.00 due the State. Now, let it be observed that this deficit occurred when the opposition to the Democratic party had control of the Commissioners' office, Wm. Whetstone and D. C. Long being Commissioners, and A. S. Russell, Clerk. In 1856 the Democrats obtained a majority in the Board of Commissioners and they found the county burthened with this debt to the State. The opposition had left them this legacy of a debt of $5716.00 and what was worse, there was $1,009.29 of that debt which could not, for a long time, be accounted for, as no one but the Opposition Commissioners themselves knew of the trick by which that amount of the State Tax was repudiated. Hence a dispute arose between the County Commissioners and the State authorities, as to the amount of tax really due the State, a dispute which remained unsettled for years. Now, let us compute the compound interest on the above sum of $5,716,00 from January 1, 1856, till January 1, 1867 (for, be it remembered, that the State compounds interest annually on all taxes unpaid, that is, it adds the interest for the first year to the principal, and then charges interest on the whole sum, and so on from one year to another). It will be found that at the rate of interest charged by the State, the above sum of $5,716,00 had increased to nearly $12,000 on the first of January last! Now, it was this terrible incubus which the opposition County Commissioners of 1854 and 1855 fixed upon the County that the Democrats were called upon to shake off. Besides, when the Democrats came into power they found the County owing private individuals for borrowed money, which indebtedness they were also compelled to cancel. But in spite of all the untoward circumstances by which they were surrounded, in spite of the hard times before the war and the heavy bounty tax during the war, the Democratic County Commissioners have paid off the County's indebtedness to the State, and in the course of another year will pay off every debt the County owes. It is true that in order to do this, they have been compelled to be a little rigid with Collectors, and found it even necessary to sue J. R. Durborrow, Collector for Middle Woodberry tp. But they were determined to rid the County of debt, and, therefore, could not stop to consult the convenience of individuals. All we ask, now, is that the responsibility for the County's late indebtedness to the State, be placed where it belongs, at the doors of the Opposition Commissioners of 1854 and 1855, and that the credit of paying off that indebtedness be given to the people who paid the taxes and the Commissioners who applied those taxes to the proper purpose.

"WHERE THE TAXES HAVE GONE."

The Ex-Tax Collector for Middle Woodberry "Puts his Foot in it" Again!

The Bedford Inquirer, of last week, contains an article under the caption of "Where the Taxes Have Gone," in which occurs the following language:

"Compelled at last to investigate the matter or have others investigate it, two or three of the party magnates, with the officials of the Poor House establishment, set themselves to work last week, and after a couple days arduous labor, succeeded in discovering deficits and mistakes to the amount of about Ten Thousand Dollars."

The above is false in several particulars. 1. There was no compulsory "investigation." A settlement was had between the Poor Directors and Mr. Blymyer, late Treasurer of the Poor House, to which both parties assented. Nobody acted in the capacity of a "party magnate," but Mr. Blymyer had his attorney and the Poor Directors had theirs. The settlement covered the whole of Mr. Blymyer's time as Treasurer, (which commenced in 1856) and was made in the most thorough and careful manner. 2. Mr. Blymyer's indebtedness to the county, as ascertained by this settlement, does not amount to Ten Thousand Dollars, as stated by the Inquirer. The sum which Mr. Blymyer owes the county is $7,000, just $3,000 less than the Inquirer's figures. So much for this subject. The Inquirer asks:

"Will not the keepers of the Democracy in this county give us an explanation of the amount and character of the discoveries they have made in the Poor House establishment?"

We are not "the keepers of the Democracy," nor of any other party, but we will answer this question to the hearts' content of the demagogues who propound it. The "amount" of "the discoveries" (ye gods! what English!) is given above; the character of the same will appear from the following: Mr. Blymyer, in his annual statements to the County Auditors, received from Collectors, made numerous mistakes in the amounts with which he charged himself. (It must be borne in mind that this settlement extended through ten years and that the interest upon the sums with which Mr. Blymyer failed to charge himself, is very heavy.)—These mistakes were all carefully corrected and Mr. Blymyer cheerfully acquiesced in the correction. When the amount due from the latter to the county, was ascertained, he at once gave ample security for its speedy payment, and the whole matter was settled satisfactorily to both Mr. Blymyer and the Poor Directors.

The Inquirer seeks to make capital out of the errors committed by Mr. Blymyer. It dares not say that those errors were wilfully or dishonestly made, for its editors know as everybody in this community knows, that Mr. Blymyer is a man of undoubted integrity. But it seeks to bring odium upon the Democrats, by laying the responsibility for these errors at their doors. Now, what are the facts connected with Mr. Blymyer's appointment as Treasurer to the Poor House? Who gave him that office? Why, Mr. GEORGE D. SHUCK, of Bedford borough, and Mr. GIDEON D. TROUT, of St. Clair township. These two gentlemen formed the majority in the Board of Poor Directors in 1856, when Mr. Blymyer was appointed, and it was during the three years of Mr. Shuck's term that a large proportion of those errors occurred. In fact it is, in a great measure, the interest upon the deficits in Mr. Blymyer's account during those three years, that swells his indebtedness to the county to so heavy a sum. Now, we say nothing about the integrity or capacity of Messrs. Shuck and Trout, but as the Inquirer is so anxious to place the responsibility for Mr. Blymyer's mistakes upon the Democrats, we have thought it well enough to remind its editors that two prominent gentlemen in their own party are about as deep in the mud as any body else is in the mire.

The fact is, that the poor, miserable demagogues of the Inquirer, have, as usual, "put their foot in it." They dare not say that the county has lost a single cent by Mr. Blymyer. They know him to be an honest, upright man, that his mistakes were not of a wilful or fraudulent character, and that he will repay the county every nickel he owes it. And what is more, they know now, that for those mistakes the Poor Directors of their own choice are just as responsible as those elected by the Democrats, and that to the Democrats belongs the credit of ferreting out the blunders committed as well during the Republican administration of SHUCK and TROUT, as during the terms of their successors. All the capital the Ex-Tax Collector of Middle Woodberry will be able to squeeze out of this subject, he can stow away, without discomfort, in the corner of his eye.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE!

Celebration of the Victory in Connecticut!

Speeches, Resolutions, and Great Enthusiasm!

The Democrats and Conservatives of Bedford county, assembled at the Court House, on Monday night last, for the purpose of celebrating the great triumph of Constitutional principles in Connecticut. The Court House was well filled and the best feeling prevailed. The Democratic Brass Band, under the leadership of L. Defibaugh and Prof. Heffley, enlivened the occasion with a number of beautiful and spirit-stirring airs. On motion of J. W. Dickerson, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, DANIEL FLETCHER, ESQ., of Monroe tp., was appointed President of the meeting. H. W. Fisher, Esq., then moved the appointment of the following Vice Presidents, which was unanimously agreed to, viz., M. Reed, Esq., Geo. W. Diehl, J. B. Fluke, Esq., Thos. Fisher, J. T. Gephart, Leven Shipley, George Vonstine, Simon Brumbaugh, David Imler, James Sill, John D. Lucas, John H. Keyser, Peter Koons, Jos. W. Elder, John Filler, Adolphus Ake, Jacob Walter, Esq., Chas. Faxon, Esq., and Isaac Kensinger. On motion the following Secretaries were appointed: R. M. Berkstresser, Capt. S. B. Tate, Lewis Saupp, John Wills, and Jonathan Brightbill.

On motion the meeting was then addressed by B. F. MEYERS, of the GAZETTE, in a speech congratulating the Democracy upon the victory of their brethren in Connecticut and exposing the fearful tendency of the doctrines and legislation of the Radical men in Congress. O. E. SHANNON, Esq., was then called out and in a speech of much vigor and eloquence, entertained the crowd until a late hour. The speakers were frequently interrupted with bursts of applause.

W. C. SCHAFER, Esq., then offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted, after which the meeting adjourned with three cheers for redeemed Connecticut and the National Union Democracy:

Resolved, by the Democracy of Bedford county, in Mass Meeting assembled, that we send greeting to the Democrats of Connecticut, hailing, as we do, the result of the late election for Governor and Members of Congress, in that State, as the dawn of a better day, the bright breaking of the morn which will soon give place to the glorious effulgence of the noonday of restored liberty and a country rescued from a long night of misrule and tyranny.

Resolved, That it is meet that Radical Fanaticism should find its first rebuke in New England, the land of its birth-place, and that as the Destroying Fiend passed from the extreme North to the South, so we hope that the Angel of Peace will follow in the track of desolation, re-building the waste places and making glad the hearts of the people.

Resolved, That the example of our brothers in Connecticut, inspires us with renewed hope and courage, and teaches us that it is only necessary to cling to the Right, with faith in the cause, in order that the Wrong may, in the end, be overturned. The Democracy of Connecticut have survived fifteen years of uninterrupted defeat, and have at last triumphed over the enemy who has met them on so many fields of battle. Let us "trust in God, and keep our powder dry," and all will yet be well.

Resolved, That the large Democratic gains in the Spring elections throughout the North and the admission of the Radicals, that the Negro vote is necessary to insure their success, are incontrovertible proofs that a large majority of the white people of the Union, are opposed to the party which now rules in Congress and throughout the Northern States.

Resolved, That we protest against the exclusion of Ten Sovereign States from the Union, against the striking of Ten Stars from the flag of our Country, against the formation of a satrapy of one half of the Republic, and in the name of those who perished to save the Constitution, we announce our unqualified and unalterable opposition to the destruction of that sacred instrument, whether by armed revolution, or by the passage of unconstitutional enactments by Congress.

Resolved, That the Delegate to the Democratic State Convention from this county, is hereby requested to vote for the Hon. George Sharswood, of Philadelphia, for the nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

—The Washington Leader—negro Radical—has closed up. Another of a similar stripe—the Enfranchised Citizen—is about to be born.

THE LATE LEGISLATURE.

Radical Opinions of the Same.

"Another Such a Legislature Will Sink us."

The Saving Grace of the Church Needed!

The Radical press teems with denunciations of the late Legislature. The members are denounced by the very papers which urged their election, as having been corrupt and venal beyond parallel. Yet, we doubt not, these same papers will urge the re-election of the very men whom they denounce. We put the testimony of these papers before the public and ask that it be carefully conned and preserved for use during the coming campaign. For the present, the evidence is as follows:

From the Delaware Republican.

Among the items in the State Appropriation bill, passed by the last Legislature, are six hundred dollars, paid the clergy for prayers for the members. If ever a body of men needed the saving grace of the Church, it was those assembled in the late State Council at Harrisburg. They ought to be ashamed of their meanness in this particular, compared with their liberality in other expenditures. All the presents of silver sets, gold watches, clocks, gold headed canes, and other costly articles, will not save them from the wrath to come.

From the Franklin Repository.

All hail, Pennsylvania! Day has broken in on the starless midnight that has encircled our venerable Commonwealth. The people can breathe again. The Legislature of 1867 is no more. It has fought its last fight—it has won its last stake—it has brought gladness to over three million hearts by its adjournment. The gallant roosters have closed their legislative auction, and gone home with heavy hearts to settle their accounts with the people who in an evil hour entrusted them with brief authority. They have passed sixteen hundred laws, "pinched" others by the score and finally, after over three months of legislative rioting, rotating, pinching, plundering and pocketing, their time has come, and they go out, as a rule, to return no more forever. Public bills were not considered. A few, perhaps a dozen in all, unimportant in their character, were passed, but 1600 private bills have been added to our statutes, and the hugest of volumes will be added to our pamphlet laws. Just what has passed nobody knows, and none pretend to know. Governor Geary has had hundreds of bills to dispose of during the last hours of the session, and how many of them had snug little serpents, hissing vipers, or regular anacondas, coiled up in them, he will learn only when their fangs sink into some luckless victim and he prays for relief. The Senate has gradually degenerated until it rises but little above the House in point of the dignity of legislation. On Tuesday a large calendar of private bills was to be disposed of, and the first legislative tribunal of the State sat for hours passing bills by their titles, no one knowing what the body of the bills contained. True, they had passed committees, but who knew what had been interpolated by a stray word or line? or who knew what hidden serpents wriggled in them under the color of fairness? There sat Bigham and Ridgway in front of the Clerk to hear the titles read, and as fast as pronounced by the Clerk they were declared passed. Occasionally some obstreperous Senator would interpose an objection, but he would be bawled down by a score of voices, saying—"let it go—it's all right—don't stop the machine!" and, lest his little bill might fall a victim to the retribution of some defeated associates, he would quiet down and the farce would go on. Thus were hundreds of bills passed in the Pennsylvania Senate, and they now stand upon our records as solemnly enacted laws. In the House it was the same, only a little more so. Instead of reading bills by their title, they read and passed many of them merely by their numbers. Neither title or body of the bills were read. Colonel Quay at one time jocularly suggested that they had better pass the calendar of bills by the page, but it was deemed necessary to read the numbers, and thus they were rushed through. Of course in such a whirlwind of legislation the roosters had a good time, but often it would be discovered that there had not been a fair understanding or a fair divide; that some rooster sharper than his fellows, had snaked a "good thing" through without giving the rest a show. Immediately upon the discovery of such a mistake, a motion would be made to reconsider, and as such a motion was always a notice to all the roosters that there was something wrong, it always carried. A hasty consultation would follow—a little knot of first-class dealers would bob their heads together in a corner, the objectionable bill would appear all right and go kiting through again. Thus rushed legislation for days, and especially the last few days of the session, until the enormous number of sixteen hundred bills were passed, and nearly all of them have been approved.

From the Somerset Herald and Whig.

—The act of adjournment, appears to have given more satisfaction to the people of the State, than any other act of the Legislature of 1867.—Bad as has been the character of our Legislature for years, it seems to be generally conceded that the body just adjourned, was even more untrustworthy than any of its predecessors. Individual promises and party pledges were set at naught, and public sentiment defied and derided.

From the Bedford Inquirer.

The Legislature of this State adjourned on the 11th inst., after having passed bills enough to make a volume half as large as Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. All the Christian people in the State should join in thanks to the Throne of Grace that it did no more harm than it did. Another such a Legislature would sink us. If the Republican party returns, within the next ten years, the same amount of corruption and verality to a single Legislature it deserves eternal defeat.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. ANNOUNCEMENTS.

All notices under this head must pre-paid to insure insertion:

COMMISSIONER.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce Joseph Souser, of Napier township, as a candidate for Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

We are authorized to announce Henry Egolf, of Napier tp., as a candidate for the office of Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY APPOINTED.—The Court, on Monday last, appointed E. F. Kerr, Esq., District Attorney, vice John Palmer, non est inventus. This is a good appointment, as we doubt not, Mr. Kerr will make an excellent officer.

SHOEMAKER'S CHEAP CORNER.—See the advertisement of J. M Shoemaker, No. 1 Anderson's Row. Job still holds forth at the old place and has just received from the East, a very large stock of Spring and Summer Goods, which will be sold very cheap.

FOUND.—The body of J. H. Typper who was drowned in the Juniata, near Hopewell, was found on Saturday, 13th inst., about a mile and a half above Stonerstown, by Thomas Snider, Jacob Miller and Arch. Miller. The remains were interred at Martinsburg on the following Monday.

THE REGULATOR.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Irvine and Statler, the proprietors of the Bedford Regulator. The "Regulator's column" displays an array of cheap and excellent goods unparalleled in the history of merchandising. Call and see for yourselves.

COURT.—The Legislature having changed the time for holding the Courts of this county, April term came upon us, this year, almost before we were ready for it. Court has been in session since Monday last. There appears to be any amount of applications for Boroughs, New Townships, changes of places of holding election, et id omne genus.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—A call has been issued for a meeting to revive the Bedford County Agricultural Society, with a view to holding a County Fair during the coming Fall. We urge our farmers to take hold of this matter. It is their interest to see that it is successfully carried through, and they ought to control its organization.

A GREAT SERMON.—The Farewell Sermon of Rev. S. Kepler, delivered in the Court House, on Sunday evening last, was one of the most impressively eloquent performances to which we have ever listened, and what is better, it breathed the true Christian spirit of Peace, giving love for hate and pity for emnity. A large concourse of people listened to the sermon, and all went away well pleased.

SABBATH SCHOOL EXERCISES ON EASTER SUNDAY.—Messrs. Editors:—Sunday last was a scene of pleasure to the children of the Sunday School of the St. James Episcopal church. At 3½ o'clock P. M., the children assembled in the Court House, a large audience being attracted. Knowing that services would be held appropriate to Easter day, the exercises began with singing a beautiful Easter Carol. A number had committed to memory, a large number of Scripture verses, which were recited in a clear and distinct tone. The smaller children were then asked questions from the catechism, which were answered readily. They also gave the Ten Commandments in a manner reflecting great credit on their teachers. It is seldom that children so young can repeat the catechism and commandments so correctly. The Rector, Rev. Mr. Barrow, made a short but beautiful address, after which he presented an Easter egg, beautifully colored and decorated, and a handsome bouquet of spring flowers, to each member of the Sunday School. The children then sang Gloria in Excelsis, which, with the benediction, by the Rector, closed the very interesting exercises.

EFFACE THE CIGAR STAMPS.—As many business men are subjecting themselves to a heavy penalty by their ignorant violation of the thirty-second section of the revenue law passed at the close of the Thirty-ninth Congress, it is stated for the information of all concerned, that the section in question enacts—

"That any person who shall sell, give away or otherwise dispose of any empty cigar boxes or boxes which have been stamped, without first defacing or destroying such stamp, shall, on conviction of either offense, be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, or both, at the discretion of the court, with the costs of the trial; and it shall be lawful for any cigar inspector or revenue officer to destroy any empty cigar box upon which a cigar stamp shall be found.

MESSRS. CLARK & Co., Chemists, Syracuse, N. Y., would call attention to their advertisements in another column, headed "Reparator Capilli," "Crisper Coma," and 'Circassian Balm.' These, undoubtedly, are the most perfect and efficacious articles of the kind ever offered the American Public. To unbelievers, we would say, "try them and be convinced."

THE attention of our readers is called to the Advertisements in another column of Messrs Berger, Shutts & Co., Chemists, Troy, N. Y. They are manufacturers of, and agents for, some of the most valuable Toilet preparations in use. By their use all may possess a clear, smooth skin, or a healthy and luxuriant growth of hair upon the head or face. Those of our readers having use for anything of the kind, would do well to patronize them.

JOHN W. BOWEN ESQ., is a regularly authorized agent for this paper, and will visit our friends throughout the county, for the purpose of making collections and taking subscritions. We hope that his calls will be responded to in the proper spirit. We have some $6,000 on our books, $1,000 of which we need very badly to pay a debt we owe in bank. In fact we must collect, and if mild measures will not answer our purpose, we will be compelled to resort to harsher ones. There are many persons who pay promptly. To such, thanks! There are more who do not. To such, duns, and finally writs. We desire to oppress no man. We are willing to be liberal to those who are in straitened circumstances. But if me do not heed our request to settle, if they treat our call for payment with contempt, they have no further claim upon our generosity. We have given away enough in our business to keep a small family five years. If we are to continue that sort of work, we want those who can pay to come forward and do it, and those who can't, to step up and settle. Of course, we don't refer to those who do pay. If this be not attended to soon, we will see whether "some things can't be done as well as others."

—A rumor is current at Washington that England intends to seize the Philippine Islands as a reprisal from Spain in the matter of the seizure of the Tornado and Victoria.

—Henry Ward Beecher has been nominated as one of the republican candidates for the New York Constitutional Convention, in Brooklyn. Horace Greeley has also been nominated.

—The Maine papers are greatly exercised over the fact that marble-playing has been introduced amongst the boys of that State. They demand that rigid prohibitory laws be passed against this demoralizing mode of gambling.

—The prospect for a large crop of peaches in Delaware is reported to be very flattering. The cold weather has had the effect of keeping the sap down and buds from expanding, and should they not be injured by late frosts, the crop bids fair to equal that of 1864.

KNOW THY DESTINY.—MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a lifelike picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with the date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communication, sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, N. Y. marl,'67y1

THE GLORY OF MAN IS STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use Helmbold's Extract Buchu.

IMPORTANT QUALITIES.—BRANDRETH'S PILLS so stimulate all the interior powers of the system that every poison or impurity is forced from the blood into the bowels, and thus passes off. Recent cases of sickness will often be cured by the effect of 6 or 8 Brandreth's Pills, which, when the operation is full and complete, leave the blood as free from poisonous and unhealthy matter as that of a new-born babe. In colds, inflammatory diseases, and even in cholera, their use restores to health sooner than all other remedies, because they take from the blood and bowels those matters upon which pains, cramps, and aches depend for continuance.

Captain Isaac Smith, of Sing Sing, says, thirty of Brandreth's Pills, taken according to directions, cured him of a very severe bronchial affection after other means had failed and he wishes his numerous friends to know the fact.

Brandreth's Pills, Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Sold also by all Druggists.—See my name on Government stamp, without which the pills are spurious. B. BRANDRETH. mar22ml

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and free from all injurious properties.

WONDERFUL BUT TRUE.—MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulistic Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a perfect and lifelike picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can assert By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE BY DR. SCHENCK'S MEDICINES.—To cure consumption, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. Schenck's Mandrake Pills cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucous accumulations; and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action.—Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhœa they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold. Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, eat all the richest food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well. 2d w

CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CENTS.—THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP.—Now, mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venitian Liniment in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 19 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of croup when my liniment was used; but hundreds of cases of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for cuts, burns, headache, toothache, sore throats, swellings, mumps, colic, diarrhœa, dysentery, spasms, old sores, and pains in the back and chest. No one once tries it who is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by all druggists. VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.—200 acres, situate in Liberty Township, Bedford County, on the Juniata river and Huntingdon & Broad Top Rail Road. Well improved fine meadows, fruit and timber—a very desirable property, at the head of market—the property of Capt. Joseph S. Reed. Will be sold cheap.—For price, &c., apply to JOHN P. REED, aug.24-tf. Att'y, at Bedford.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE.—One lot of ground in the centre of Bloody Run, fronting on Main street about sixty-five feet, one of the very best business locations in Bloody Run. Also, ten acres of wood land, adjacent to Bloody Run, lying on the Bedford Rail Road, containing first rate iron ore and having thereon a never-failing spring of water.
For particulars inquire at the store of Mrs. S. E. Mann, Bloody Run, or of Dr. Hickok, Bedford, Pa. Dec 15, '65.

EXTENSIVE PRIVATE SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.—The undersigned will sell at private sale, several adjoining and contiguous tracts of land, lying on the headwaters of Dunning's Creek, in St. Clair township, Bedford county, containing 765 acres, now divided into four tracts, three tracts thereof containing respectively 157, 163, and 183 acres and the other, being the Saw Mill tract, containing 262 acres. These tracts will be sold as they are or subdivided to suit purchasers.

The saw mill tract contains a FIRST CLASS SAW MILL, with a never-failing head of water, and is in the midst of a TIMBER REGION unsurpassed for the quality of timber. One other of the tracts contains an enviable site for a TANYARD, with all the advantages of water, and is alongside of Chestnut Ridge, where the resources for Bark are inexhaustible.

100 acres of the land is bottom, mostly covered by large sugar trees. 300 acres are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and the balance well timbered.

There are THREE DWELLING HOUSES, upon the premises and THREE BARNS, with other outbuildings. The Fruit is choice and in abundance upon some of these tracts. This property lies 12 miles North of Bedford, and in a country noted for its good roads, leading North, South, East and West, to Bedford, Hollidaysburg, Johnstown, and other points, on the Penn'a Central Railroad.

Farmers, Lumbermen, Tanners and Speculators should examine the premises, as these lands will be sold on fair and reasonable terms.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.
The ingredients used in compounding Mishler's Herb Bitters are not kept secret by the Proprietor. Send for a circular and you will learn the medical properties of all the articles used in its preparation; also in the manner in which they operate on the system, and much other valuable information. If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.
may11.—1y.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!
Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—
1st, Scrofula,—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."
To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.
It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.
2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.
3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.
4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.
The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!
To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for
J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.
CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—☞ none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.
For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

VOL. V. Again Enlarged! 1867.

THE OLD GUARD,
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE,
DEVOTED TO
Literature, Science and Art, and the Political Principles of 1776 and 1787.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

The success of THE OLD GUARD has been as remarkable as it ought to be gratifying to the friends of a true American literature. It has steadily doubled its circulation each year of its publication, and its publishers have found it necessary to annually enlarge it, to meet the full expectations of its patrons, as well as to realize their own ideal of a first-class Family and Literary Magazine, combined with sound political principles.—To still farther carry out this design, The Old Guard for 1867 will be printed on new type, and enlarged sixteen additional pages, making in all nearly One Thousand Pages of reading matter yearly for the low price of three dollars! Arrangements have also been made to secure the very best literary talent of the country. We will commence in the January number a thrilling Romance, written expressly for The Old Guard, entitled,

JOSCELYN; A Tale of the Revolution;

By Wm. Gilmore Simms, Esq., of S. C.,

the peer of Cooper and Irving, taking the reader back to the birth of the American principle of government, and introducing him to the rebels of 1776. John Esten Cooke, Esq., of Virginia, author of "Surry of Eagle's Nest," &c,, &c., will furnish a series of graphic sketches, entitled "The Battles of Virginia," while our present corps of contributors, with some new ones, will continue to furnish articles, making the Magazine second to none in point of literary attraction and ability.—Politically, The Old Guard will stand in the future as in the past, faithfully guarding the Constitution as it came from the hands of Washington, without acquiescing in any of the subversions, under the title of "amendments." It will be continued upon the grand idea that "all is not lost," while virtue and intelligence remain with any portion of the people.

ASTROLOGY.
The World Astonished
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catasrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives your name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.
Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.
REPARATOR CAPILLI
For restoring hair upon bald heads; from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, provided entire satisfaction is not given. Miscellaneous.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with consciencious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political, agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and
